

Outcome GWAS power sets the reproducibility of the candidate list — and the class gap is mostly threshold proximity a Down-sampling reproduces a separately observed round b The same curve in five cancers c The reproducible part of the candidate list is the part that is not a discovery d Novel-locus candidates sit against the detection threshold by construction e Conditioning on effect size absorbs most of the class gap

