

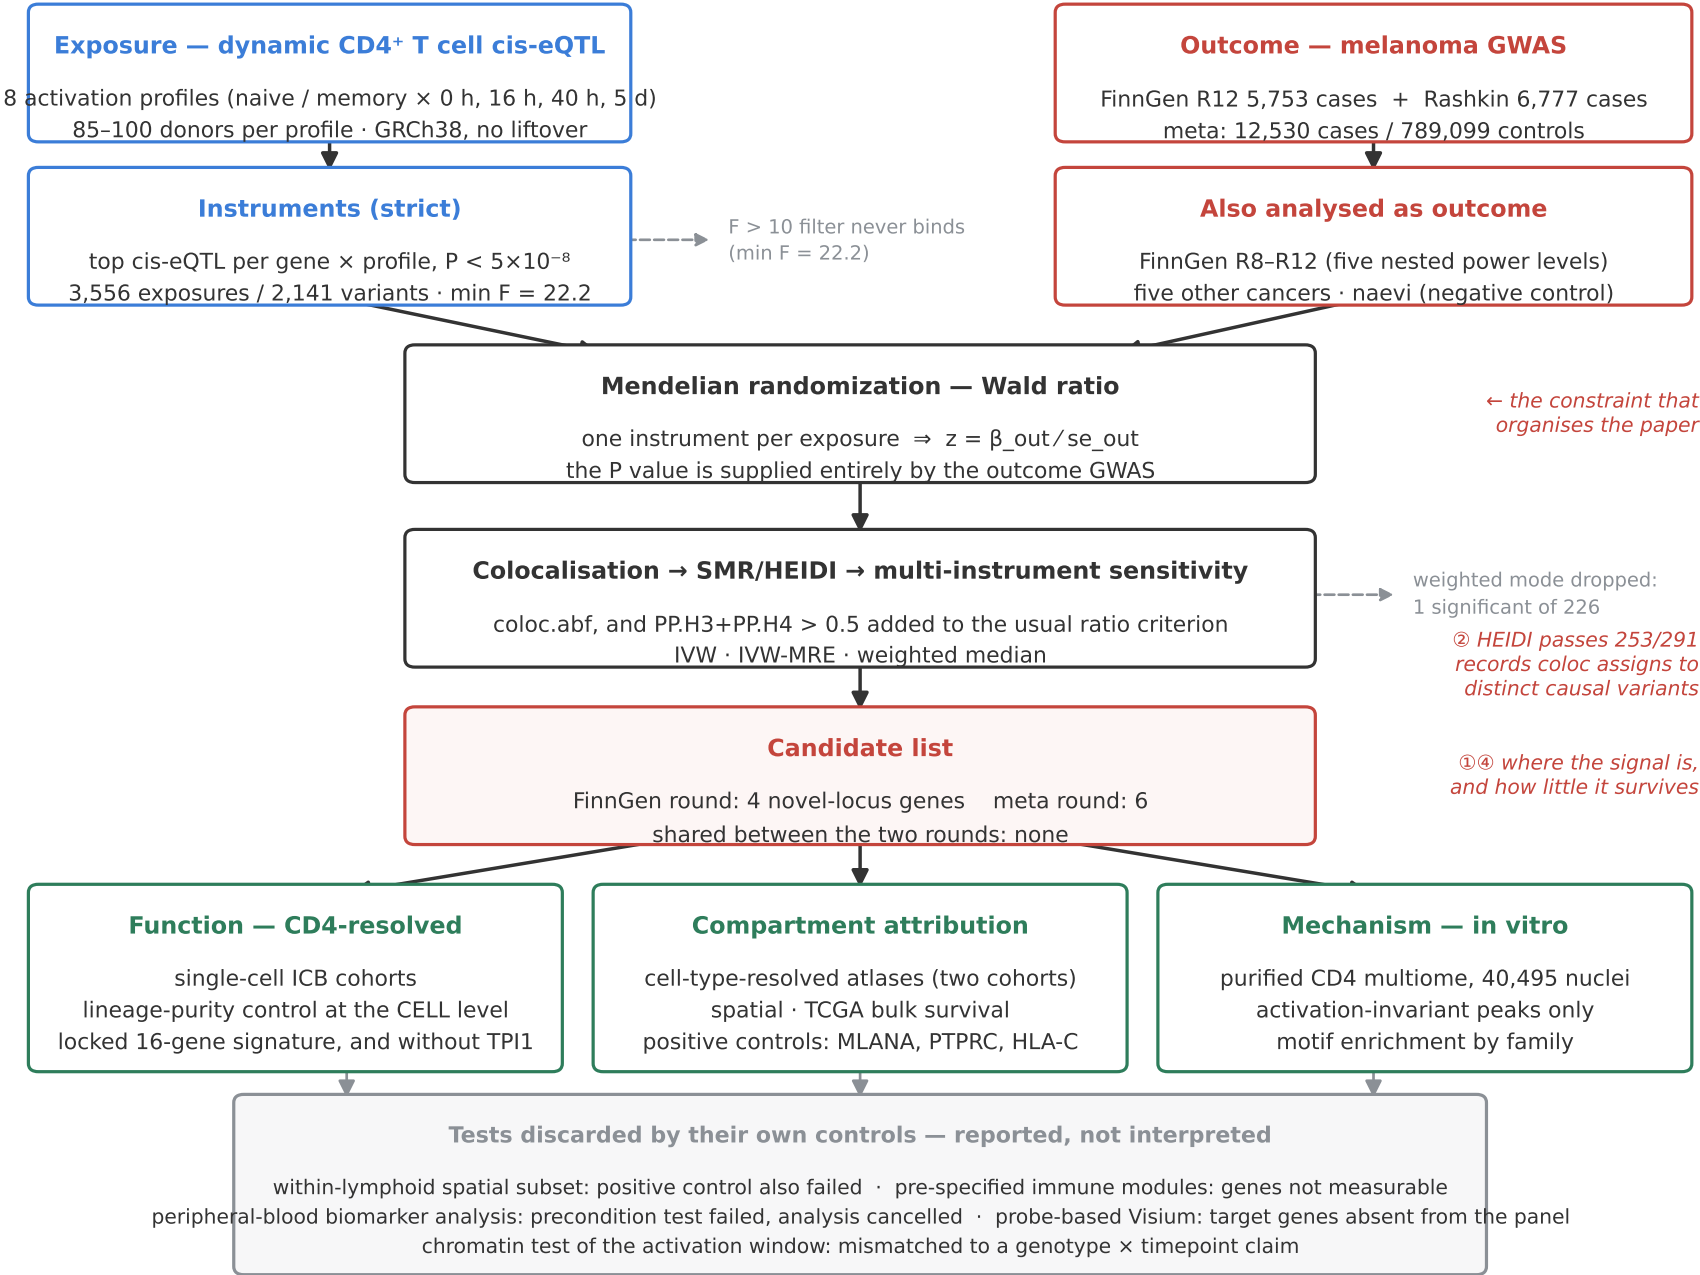

Fig S1 | Analysis flow, with the quantities and the stopping rules that produced them

Grey branches are what each step removed. Red text on the right marks where a methodological finding comes from.

Every quantity above is a count from the analysis, not an illustration. Stopping rules were fixed before the step they govern.